National President Letter

Dear Friends,

As the National President of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, Inc., I must thank you for being part of the journey that has brought us to 2018, a milestone year for our organization. Hadassah women, and the men who support us, laid the foundation for the world-class Hadassah Medical Organization (HMO) that this year, celebrates its 100th Anniversary.

This year, we are especially mindful of the women who saw the need for fighting trachoma and improving maternity care in pre-state Israel. From the first two nurses Henrietta Szold sent to Palestine, to the first class of nurses who graduated from our Henrietta Szold Hadassah Hebrew University School of Nursing, to our twenty-first century clinical masters nursing program and PhD program, Hadassah women have made possible the work of HMO. From the treatment by those nurses and doctors of trachoma in thousands of young children back in 1918, to the miraculous accomplishments of today in our Department of Ophthalmology, HMO shines as a beacon to all those in need.

We will celebrate our medical beginnings and set our sights on the future. We are proud to be such an integral part of the State of Israel, especially as she celebrates her 70th Anniversary!

I am so gratified that you are registering to attend our Women's Health and Advocacy Conference in Washington, DC.

The Conference is the first of two anchor events of a full year of celebrations. The second is a very special mission to Israel: "From Dream to Innovation: Hadassah Milestone Mission", October 7-15, 2018!

In addition to expert panels on health issues at both our singular panel on technology and health as well as our Women's Health Empowerment Summit, we will hear about the outstanding modern-day achievements of HMO at our very special Gala and what we can look forward to in the near future. We will raise our voices together when we go to Capitol Hill to speak out on issues important to us, our families, friends and communities.

As we, Kulanu B'Yachad, together, celebrate many Hadassah milestone anniversaries, we look forward to the next 100 years and accomplishments of which we can only dream.

I look forward to greeting each of you in Washington, DC.

B'Shalom,

Ellen Hershkin

CEO/Executive Director Letter

Dear Friends,

We welcome you to the Hadassah Women's Health and Advocacy Conference as well as to Hadassah's National Assembly meetings. We have provided many options this year for your participation. You can register for the National Assembly meetings and/or National Business Meeting alone; the National Assembly and Conference package or for the Conference alone.

At the heart of Hadassah's mission is its commitment to quality health care for all. Gender equity in the identification, research and treatment in medicine requires continued and robust attention, discussions, solutions and next steps. The intersection between Hadassah's long-time support of disease control in Israel and education and advocacy for equal health care in the U.S. will serve as the backdrop of the Conference's deliberations. On Tuesday, we will present a panel on "Privacy and Information: Women's Health and Technology," on Wednesday a summit for the Coalition for Women's Health Equity in Women's Health, and a spectacular HMO Gala, and on Thursday a Day on the Hill to meet with legislators.

The Conference will offer the opportunity to expand our discussions and open our minds to the responsibility we and other like-minded organizations, the government and individuals at all levels of the community have to ensure the best and most egalitarian health care possible. We greatly look forward to engaging with you in vigorous and productive conversation.

Dr. Janice Weinman

DISCLAIMER, RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION OF HADASSAH

By registering and participating in the 2018 Hadassah Women's Health and Advocacy Conference in Washington D.C. and associated travel to, during and from the Conference (the "Conference"), you agree to the following (as used herein, "you" means you and you on behalf of and with respect to any companions and family members traveling with you):

You understand and agree that "We" (as used in this Disclaimer, Release and Indemnification, the term "We" and the term "Hadassah" includes Hadassah, The Women's Zionist Organization of America, Inc., Hadassah Medical Relief Association, Inc., and each of their affiliates, related entities, predecessors, officers, directors, employees, volunteers, members, agents, representatives and their successors and assigns) act only as agent for the Conference participants in making arrangements with third parties regarding the Conference. You further agree that "We" do not assume any liability in making the Conference arrangements and are not responsible for any delay, injury, accident, natural disaster, labor dispute, machinery breakdown, failure or difficulty, government restraint, hostile act, terrorism, threat of terrorism, social unrest, local laws, climatic conditions, abnormal conditions or developments, theft, illness, death, disease, damage or other cost, loss or expense, of any nature whatsoever, arising directly or indirectly out of the Conference or Conference arrangements, including, but not limited to, that arising from Hadassah's negligence or the negligence of others. You acknowledge and affirm that, notwithstanding any security arrangements that "We" may make, "We" do not guarantee and are not responsible for your personal safety or the safety of your property while participating in the Conference or any Conference-related activities, including, but not limited to, airline travel, ground transportation, meals, lodging, and recreational activities. You further agree that "We" shall not be liable or responsible for breach of contract, failure to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act or any intentional or negligent actions or omissions on the part of airlines, transportation operators, tour guides, hotels, restaurants, caterers, other suppliers, or other third parties or on the part of Hadassah, which results in any loss, damage, delay, inconvenience or injury to travelers or travelers' companions or group members. "We" are not responsible for loss or theft of, or damage to, luggage or property, for accidents en route, or for ill health that may require travelers to miss parts of the Conference or to return home without your companions, family or group members. The tickets, coupons, tariffs, rules or contracts currently in use by any carrier, hotel, restaurant or other contractor rendering services shall constitute the sole contract between such contractor and the traveler and "We" do not guarantee any rates, bookings, reservations, connections, scheduling, or handling of baggage or other personal effects. All rights are reserved to adjust registration fees, costs or other expenses in connection with participating in the Conference at any time and to substitute accommodations or services of a similar category when deemed necessary.

Itineraries, activities, fees and speakers-lecturers are subject to change without notice due to special or unforeseen circumstances, and such substitution or withdrawal is not a basis for participant cancellation or refund. You further agree that you assume full responsibility for, and that Hadassah shall not be liable or responsible for, any personal travel outside of the Conference that you choose to partake in or any goods or services that you obtain from third party vendors prior to, during or after the conclusion of the Conference.

"We" reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any Conference participant at any time before or during the Conference, for any reason whatsoever, including failure to complete the Conference payment and registration forms in accordance with our published schedule, failure to comply with any rules or policies contained in the Conference registration forms or materials or otherwise hereafter established with respect to the Conference, including any security requirements, or in the event participants whose mental or physical condition or general behavior or deportment impedes the operation of the Conference or affects the rights, welfare or enjoyment of other Conference participants.

You are familiar with and understand the activities involved in the Conference and you agree to observe and be bound by all rules with respect to the Conference, now or hereafter established. You understand and voluntarily assume all risks, whether or not foreseeable, of attending the Conference and traveling to, from and during the Conference, including risks associated with your safety and security and/or risk that could result in damage or physical, emotional or psychological
